His Glory is excited to announce the world premier of its groundbreaking documentary, Holy Land, on July 29th at 8pm EDT. The trailer for Holy Land can be viewed at <http://Hisglory.me/HolyLand>.

Go behind the scenes with Pastor Dave Scarlett and the His Glory team and experience Biblical Israel in a weaving of spiritual, ancient and modern life never before revealed in such detail and awe. "This movie will help the Bible come alive for you," says Pastor Dave, "and make you stronger in your faith."

Directed and filmed by Robert Bailey and produced and narrated by Mikki Willis (creators of <https://plandemicseries.com>) and Elevate Films, this film illuminates the direct connection between end-time prophecies and the moment we're living in. Follow Pastor Dave and his guests through a walk with Christ and an insight into modern day Israel that will bring up close and personal the beauty of this sacred nation. Through the lens of Holy Land, you will be taken inside the complex and powerful life of everyday Israel to experience both the deeply spiritual meaning of Israel and the tension under which this country has miraculously survived and thrived against all odds.

To celebrate the launch of the movie, Pastor David Scarlett will be hosting a Twitter Space event on July 19 at 8 PM EDT (<https://twitter.com/i/spaces/1RDxlaajBDmKL>) along with director Robert Bailey and producer and narrator Mikki Willis.

His Glory is currently seeking funding for Holy Land to broaden the film's distribution. About Pastor Dave Scarlett and His Glory:

Pastor Dave Scarlett has built a life of service as the pastor of His Glory from a less than traditional path. As a former US Marine and telecommunications executive, Pastor Scarlett's life was permanently changed when he had a near death experience that took him to heaven. He met the lord, and learned he was welcome in heaven, although his 'report card' was empty. It was then he knew he must return to his earthly existence and devote himself to a life of service through Christ. Pastor Dave founded and has since bravely led His Glory. As a lead pastor for Clay Clark's Reawaken America tour, where he has facilitated over 5000 baptisms since the tour's start in 2021. As part of the core Reawaken America tour, Pastor Dave has also built a strong relationship with America's General, Michael Flynn, and has pioneered relationships with global leaders who continue to bridge the gap between Jewish and Christian biblical prophecy.
